

California Gang Prevention Summit

Developing Partnerships for a Safer Community

The Fresno Police Department is proudly hosting the California Gang Prevention Summit, Developing Partnerships for a Safer Community. Fresno Mayor Alan Autry and Fresno Police Chief Jerry Dyer will be present along with several distinguished guest speakers. This special event is open to Federal, State, and local Law Enforcement officials, Educators and Community Faith-Based Organizations. The Summit will provide an opportunity for attendees to learn about the gang culture, identify best practices for combating gang activities, and demonstrate the benefits of establishing successful collaborations to address the rising gang problem.
